A detailed look at the curriculum and modules

4 MODULES

Total Rewards

This course will help you understand the full cycle of Comp & Ben strategy. You will learn to develop a Total Rewards Strategy that includes a direct compensation structure, a benefits plan, and wellbeing and recognition programs. You'll also learn to evaluate your rewards strategy, based on a PESTEL analysis of external factors and taking into account internal influences, such as key stakeholders, company culture and HR challenges.

And since nothing can get done in a vacuum, the final module will teach you how to gain executive buy-in and evaluate the success of your program through both objective and subjective measures.

- Strategy and Rewards
- Evaluating Your Total Reward Strategy
- C&B Strategy Design
- Total Rewards in Context: Communication & Success Factors

3 MODULES

Pay Principles

In the second course, you will study both job evaluation and grading to better understand the role this plays in C&B. You will also study various aspects of pay, including variable pay and the pay for cross-border workers. Finally, you will take a look at how these topics integrate with HR processes, including budgeting for salary costs.

- Job Evaluation
- Pay
- HR Process Integration

1 MODULE

Sales Compensation

Sales compensation is different from general compensation. After this course, you will understand why, and in detail. You will take a closer look at how sales compensation impacts the overall business, how to set up governance for it, defining the pay structure, designing payout tables, and the sales compensation testing process.

- Sales Compensation

2 MODULES

Compensation and Benefits Analytics

In this course, experts from PwC Netherlands explain how you can optimize your Comp & Ben strategy using data. First, you will learn how to gather and analyze the data you need to answer business questions. Then you will learn how to optimize your total rewards offering with analytics, explore various ways you can use benchmarking to gain competitive advantage, and use analytics to connect base pay to engagement and retention.

- C&B Metrics and Data Types
- Data-Driven Approaches to Base Pay and Total Rewards

2 MODULES

Pay Gap Analysis

No one wants to pay their employees unfairly, and taking a data-driven approach can help you safeguard pay equity. In the final course of this certificate program, you will study pay gap theory. You will learn how to interpret pay gap statistics, identify the key drivers of reward, and measure pay inequality. After the course, you will be able to turn your results into an action plan, bringing you that much closer to pay equity.

- Interpreting Pay Gap Data
- Where Do You Focus?

1 MODULE

Capstone Project

The capstone project will help you put your newly acquired knowledge and skills into practice. The project covers a wide range of topics included in the certificate program, so that can confidently apply your new Compensation & Benefits expertise in your organization.
